

First Generation

1. Andrew FORGEY, son of FORGEY (-), was born on 4 February 1732 in Ireland. He married Margaret REYNOLDS in 1760 (approx.) in Ireland. Before 1800 he was in New Providence Presbyterian Church, Hawkins Co., Tn. He died in 1809 in Hawkins Co., Tn.

Andrew FORGEY, Signature

We believe that Andrew Forgey appears on the 1766 Religious Census for Ireland. A Hugh Reynolds also appears on the Census for Creggan Co. Armagh/Louth. Hugh may be Andrew's father-in-law. Andrew FORGEY Sr. may have had a brother named Alexander FORGEY. He lived in Washington County, Virginia. The names of his descendants are unknown. Both Alexander and Andrew, it is believed, originally settled in Cumberland County, Pennsylvania. In 1773 Andrew FORGEY purchased land there, and Alexander FORGEY was a witness to this transaction. Alexander and Andrew appear on tax lists for Peters Township from 1772 to 1774. In 1779 Andrew FORGEY Sr. was convicted of selling liquor without a license and above the rates. The trial took place in Washington County, Virginia. Andrew FORGEY eventually settled in the Surgoinsville area of Hawkins County, TN. A creek named Forgey Creek is located there. The Jacob ROLLER family lived in nearby Scott County, Virginia. Andrew owned 400 acres of land according to the 1809 tax list for Hawkins County. Andrew owned one slave named Bachus.

Settled in Hawkins County on the Stage Road 10 miles above Rogersville. There lived and died. Had a family of 6 daughters and 1 son." He also said he was a religious man and an Elder in the New Providence. James Forgey was appointed administrator of the Estate of a John Forgey in Hawkins County, TN in 1793. He later sued Joseph Beard on behalf of the estate.

Margaret F. CALDWELL was born on 18 April 1768 in Hawkins Co. She married James Reynolds FORGEY on 8 September 1791. She died on 7 March 1846 in Hawkins Co. She and James FORGEY had the following children:

Hugh FORGEY

Hugh Forgey Crawford wrote this about Hugh "My Uncle Hugh's family I cannot say much about him, he died in early life. I have never seen him after I was old enough to remember him. I was named for him and Uncle Hugh Crawford. Hugh Forgey once lived in this county (ie Knox) a few miles north of here."

The first mention I find of Hugh is when he signed a Sullivan County Petition 1786. In 1787 he is a chain bearer for a surveyor, Thomas Hutchings, in Knox County, TN. In 1792 he placed an ad in the Knoxville Gazette regarding stolen horses. It reads "'I gave a bond to Leonard Rice for $250 with a bearing date of November last, and payable on June next. Rice has given three horses that are now proven stolen. I will not pay said bond.'" In April of 1795 a Hugh FORGEY sued Joseph BEARD in Knox County, TN. Hugh had previously testified in the James FORGEY adm. of John FORGEY vs. Joseph BEARD case, which took place in 1794 in Knox County. Joseph accused Hugh of perjury in that case, stating that he uttered a "damned eternal lie." Hugh sued Joseph for slander. He asked for $1000 in damages, but only received $5.00. On 2 Oct 1802 Hugh wrote a letter to the Cherokee Indian Agency which is now in a collection at the National Archives. Hugh and wife Catherine were mentioned in her father's probate and received $2.00 from the estate. In 1806 Hugh left Knox County, TN and briefly relocated to Jackson County, TN where he signed a petition in late 1806. By 1809 he is back in Hawkins County, TN living on his brother John's property in Stanley Valley (according to Andrew Sr.'s will). We know Hugh is alive in 1809 when he appears on his father's will and a Taxlist for Hawkins County, TN. He may have died shortly after, because Catherine appears in Court represented by brother-in-law, James, in 1814.

This is how Hugh described his mother's family: "I will say something about my dear Mother's family. Her parents came from Ireland, My Mother at the breast, so she could say that she crossed the great herron pond, or the great briny deep, as the Irish would call it. They were strictly protestants."

In religion Presbyterian. My Mother could sing or repeat a song that was composed before or at the time of the great battle of the bind waters between the Protestants and the Roman Catholic in the time of the bloody persecution. She learnt it from her parents. I am vext with my self that I did not make notes of it when I was young. I recollect but little of the poetry, it was a very striking thing."
